

Dear ladies and gentlemen, brothers and sisters!

We invite you to watch two documentaries about the great Saint John of Shanghai and San Francisco and about the spiritual life of modern America!

The documentary film "The Parish of Bishop John" opens unknown pages of the life of the church parish in Washington DC, which was founded by St. John of Shanghai and San Francisco, a great missionary who saved the lives of thousands of people. Archpriest Victor Potapov, rector of St. John the Baptist Church in Washington DC, and his wife, Matushka Maria Potapova, talk about the spiritual life of Orthodox Americans. The documentary "Heaven. Poste Restente" is dedicated to the story of the numerous miracles that occurred through the prayers of St. John of Shanghai and San Francisco. Archpriest Stefan Pavlenko, rector of the Church of All Russian Saints in Burlingame, California, shares with the audience the unique history of the Russian settlement of Fort Ross in America.

Both films are complemented by beautiful shots of American nature and its inhabitants, as well as famous landmarks in Washington DC and California.

Come watch the films and your heart will be filled with joy, and St. John of Shanghai and San Francisco will help you solve your problems.

The films will be screened at the Landmark Opera Plaza Cinema May 2 to May 8, 2025.

Show times 1 pm, 4 pm and 7pm (combined runtime less than two hours)

Free admission, donations are welcome.

Landmark Opera Plaza Cinema

601 Van Ness Ave, San Francisco, CA 94102

For information e-mail: aderugin31@gmail.com