Information

Our school's goals are to maintain a strong Orthodox and Russian cultural education, Russian language and history while sustaining the interest, curiosity and sense of value for our students.

We welcome your children to the 2026-27 academic school year which begins on Sunday, September 13 with a Moleben after Liturgy. Refreshments and a PTA meeting will follow immediately afterwards in the Church Hall. The first day of studies is on Tuesday, September 15 at 4:15. The calendar for this year is posted on the parish website.

Classes convene on Tuesdays and Saturdays from 4:15 pm to 7:00 pm.

On Tuesdays, we teach the Law of God, Russian Language (Reading and Writing), Russian Literature, History, Russian Culture. On Saturdays, we teach Liturgical Chanting, Folk Singing, Math, and Chess.

We Accept Students Year-Round. Ages 4 to 17 for Russian-speakers and non-speakers.

Tuition is $100 per month for the first child in the family, 50% discount for the second child. There is no charge for the third and fourth child.

A one-time payment of $100 per student is requested at the beginning of the school year for textbooks and materials which are provided by the school.
